EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

August 2008 to present, Coordinator Institutional Research World Campus Certificate Program.
January 1984 to present, Professor of higher education teaching legal issues in higher education, administration in higher education among others. Dr. Hendrickson's advisees have won outstanding dissertation awards and have become, higher education faculty, college and university presidents and administrators. Dr. Hendrickson has numerous publications on legal issues, management, organizational theory, faculty employment and student issues.

July 2001 to December 2007, Associate Dean for Graduate Studies, Research, and Faculty Development, College of Education, The Pennsylvania State University, University Park Pennsylvania. Instituted a Research initiation grants program for faculty that provided seed money that lead to over $6 million in awards in fiscal year $2007. The research portfolio of the College has grown from $4 million in awards to $18 million in 2007. In 2006 the College the award of an Institute of Education of the U.S. Department of Education Regional Laboratory 5 year award of $31 million dollars and in 2007 was awarded the $27 million NASA National Education Center. The portfolio also included the coordination of Graduate Degree programs in the College and faculty development programs.. In 2007 6 doctoral degree programs were ranked in the top 10 By US News and 11 were ranked in the top 25.

1993 to 2001, Professor and Head, Department of Education Policy Studies, The Pennsylvania University, University Park, Pennsylvania. The Education Policy Studies program has three graduate degree programs—Educational Theory and Policy, Educational Administration, and Higher Education. A dual title degree program in Comparative and International Education is also located in the department. The department has 20 faculty in tenured or tenure track positions and a budget of 1.8 million dollars. Over the past few years, two ranked programs have been strengthened and one has grown from near extinction to developing a strong reputation for its graduates and its research.

Collegiality and collaboration among the faculty of the degree programs is at an all time high. The department has entered into a partnership with the Pennsylvania School Board Association, is developing an education policy center for the College of Education, and has cultivated relationships with school districts in the State. As part of the University's "Grand Destiny" campaign, the department head coordinates fund raising and endowment activities.

1984 to 1993, Professor and Professor-in-Charge, Higher Education Program, The Pennsylvania State University, University Park, Pennsylvania (Tenure awarded in 1988, promotion to Full Professor 1991). The professor in charge is responsible for coordination and leadership of the Higher Education program's seven faculty in the areas of curriculum, admission, and policy development. During this time period, the curriculum of the program was revised and updated, and a symbiotic relationship was fostered between the program and the Center for the Study of Higher Education. The program in higher education moved from a ranking of 3rd in the country to being the top ranked program.
