

June 16, 2011

Technology Replacement Guideline

College of Education

The College of Education recognizes its responsibility to keep technology equipment and software up-to-date, but also recognizes its responsibility for making good and complete use of pieces of equipment and software that have already been purchased. The College aspires to make replacements before 4 years elapse. Unless a compelling case can be made for an exception, replacements will not be approved until at least 2 years have elapsed.