

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION
ALUMNI STUDENT EMERGENCY LOAN FUND

PURPOSE: To provide short-term loans to students enrolled in the College of Education who require financial assistance to complete a dissertation or to cover unanticipated education-related expenses.

ELIGIBILITY: Undergraduate and graduate full-time and part-time degree candidates in the College of Education. Documented financial need and recommendation of applicant's adviser are required.

AMOUNT OF LOANS: The number and the amount of loans awarded is determined by the Office of Student Aid in consultation with the College. The Office of Student Aid reviews all loan amounts to ensure the loans do not exceed documented financial need. Loans from this fund shall not exceed the equivalent of in-state tuition cost of eight (8) graduate credits at the time the loan promissory note is signed by the recipient.

REPAYMENT: In accordance with University policy in effect at the time of the loan.
